

Home Inspection Arbitration Rules

1. Agreement of Parties

The following arbitration rules shall apply whenever parties sign a document or contract that states they will abide by them. These rules are applicable to voluntary arbitration procedures and contract-mandated arbitration. Parties may modify any provision, in writing, by mutual agreement. These rules and any amendment of them shall apply except for any such provision that may be inconsistent with applicable law or when modified in writing by the parties.

2. Initiation of Arbitration

A. Contractual Agreement

Any party wishing to initiate arbitration by prior contractual agreement under Resolute Systems' Arbitration Rules will follow these procedures:

The initiating party shall serve written notice to the opposing party via registered mail or overnight courier. This notice shall set forth the nature of the dispute, the dollar amount, if any, involved, and the remedy sought. A copy of this notice shall be sent to Resolute Systems at 1661 N. Water Street, Suite 501, Milwaukee, WI 53202. The responding party must answer the filing party, in writing via registered mail or overnight courier, within 21 days. A copy of the answer must also be sent to Resolute Systems.

The Resolute ADR Consultant will contact the respondent and determine if there is a counterclaim. If the respondent intends to file a counterclaim, it must serve notice against the filing party setting forth the nature of the dispute, the dollar amount, if any, involved, and the remedy sought. The filing party must answer the counterclaim in same. If the respondent fails to answer the notice of arbitration, and/or if the filer fails to answer the counterclaim, it/they will be treated as a denial(s) of the claim(s). Such denial(s) will not delay the arbitration in any manner.

Within 60 days of any party to this contract demanding arbitration, the parties will attempt voluntary settlement through mediation administered by Resolute Systems, LLC, and during this 60-day window, the arbitration process shall be stayed with the exception of the responding party answering the arbitration notice and notifying Resolute Systems, LLC of a counter-claim. Absent a voluntary settlement through mediation, arbitration will commence in accordance with Resolute Systems, LLC's Home Inspection Arbitration Rules, and judgment upon the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered into any court or administrative tribunal having jurisdiction thereof.

Any party may opt out of mediation, thereby moving the claim directly to binding arbitration pursuant to the Resolute Systems, LLC's Home Inspection Arbitration Rules.

B. Voluntary Submission

Parties to any existing dispute may initiate arbitration by contacting Resolute Systems, LLC at 800.776.6060 and request that Resolute Systems, LLC administer the arbitration of their dispute pursuant to The Resolute Systems, LLC Home Inspection Arbitration Rules.

3. Panel of Arbitrators

Resolute Systems, LLC shall establish and maintain a Panel of Neutrals from which parties may select a mutually agreeable neutral, or neutrals.

4. Selection of Arbitrator

Unless applicable law or the agreement of the parties provides otherwise, the dispute shall be decided by one arbitrator, except as otherwise provided in this section. Resolute Systems, LLC will submit a Panel of at least five (5) Neutrals from which the parties shall have ten (10) days to find a mutually acceptable arbitrator.

Additionally, the parties may voluntarily agree to select an arbitrator outside of the panel provided by Resolute Systems, LLC. Resolute Systems, LLC will administer the arbitration pursuant to the Resolute Systems, LLC Home Inspector Arbitration Rules with any arbitrator whom the parties voluntarily select, and who agrees to follow the Resolute Systems, LLC Home Inspector Arbitration Rules.

If the parties cannot agree upon the arbitrator within ten (10) days of receiving the panel, Resolute Systems, LLC will submit a Panel of at least seven (7) arbitrators and ask the parties to rank the arbitrators in order of preference with 1 being most preferred and 7 being least preferred. Parties may strike any arbitrator they will not consider. Parties will have seven (7) days to complete their rankings and submit them to Resolute Systems, LCC who will then tally the scores. The arbitrator with the lowest score will be invited to serve as the arbitrator. Any party has the right to strike an entire panel once. If they do so, Resolute Systems, LLC will submit another panel for the parties to rank.

If after receiving the rankings there are no commonly-preferred arbitrators, each party will submit a list of four (4) arbitrators to be considered. Resolute Systems, LLC will submit a list of five (5) arbitrators to be considered. These lists will be combined creating a list of 13 potential arbitrators. The parties will then take turns striking arbitrators until one remains.

5. Qualifications of Arbitrator

No person shall serve as an arbitrator in any arbitration in which that person has any financial or personal interest. An arbitrator shall disclose any circumstances likely to create a presumption of bias that might disqualify that arbitrator as an impartial arbitrator. If for any reason an appointed arbitrator should be unable to perform the duties of the office, Parties will have 2 days from when the original arbitrator disclosed his inability to perform to mutually agree on a replacement from among those names remaining on the list(s) submitted to the parties. If an appointment cannot be made from the list(s), Resolute Systems, LLC will appoint a replacement from among those names remaining on the list(s) submitted to the parties.

6. Administrative Conference

Any party to the arbitration may request an administrative conference with the Arbitrator and the opposing party(s) to specify the issues to be resolved, guide discovery, stipulate any mutually agreed upon procedures or rules that may expedite the arbitration process, establish high/low parameters, and address any other concern by any party to the arbitration.
